

Daniel e Apocalipse

O panorama
do futuro

The Book of DANIEL

the reign of Jelah, Nebuchad-
on came to Jerusalem.
He gave Jehoiakim king of Judah, with some of the house of God, which he had brought from the land of Shinar to Babylon, wine to drink.
Daniel, who was in the king's palace, refused to drink; therefore he requested the chief of the eunuchs that he should not defile himself.
9 Now God had revealed unto Daniel all these things, and he was found in the favor and love of the chief of the eunuchs.
10 And the chief of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I have found in Daniel more favor and love than in all the other captives of Judah.

them to the palace of the king, and he said to the chief of the eunuchs that he had appointed over them, Let not these boys defile themselves with the wine of the king's table; they shall drink water only.

9 Now God had revealed to Daniel all these things, and he became famous in the sight of the chief of the eunuchs.

eunuchs said to Daniel, I have found in thee a special favor and power in thee.
